

Santa Cruz

Donors honored by United Way

United Way of Santa Cruz County netted more than $900,000 for the 2009 Fundraising Campaign. More than 35 businesses and organizations are being recognized for top-performing workplace campaigns. A luncheon at the Coconut Grove will celebrate the work of more than 100 volunteers who implemented employee campaigns, visited member agencies and generated support for the United Way.

The county of Santa Cruz will be honored with the President's Award for continued support of the United Way mission. Plantronics will be given the Corporate Spirit Award. Other individuals and organizations recognized are Healthy Kids, KSBW, TV-8, Robert Hallbower, Ed Stoll from Monterey Mushrooms, Hospice of Santa Cruz County, Lauren Patrick, Santa Cruz Bible Church and the Santa Cruz Sentinel.
